ABOUT THE SEMINAR

The objective of this seminar is to provide an insight into various aspects of E-waste management with respect to the current situation.

Rapid technology changes, low cost and planned obsolescence have resulted in a fast growing amount of electronic waste worldwide. In landfill this waste can cause health and environmental problems, as they contain harmful materials which can be distributed through the environment. Recycling provides an environmental sound solution to handling the harmful materials. These items contain non-renewable resources (plastic, glass and precious metals). These resources are in high demand and can be recovered and reused rather than sent to landfill. Recycling electronic waste can also reduce greenhouse gas emissions.

The Seminar is designed to cover the following topics:

- Introduction to E-waste management
- Environmental and health issues
- E-waste collection system
- Extended producer responsibility
- Recycling E-waste: practices & challenges
- Role of informal sector in E-waste management
- Procedures for setting up E-waste recycling facilities
- Environmentally sound management of E-waste
- Approach towards effective management systems for E-waste.

RESOURCE PERSON

Experts from various reputed institutions, industries and doctors from various hospitals will share their knowledge and enrich the learning experience.
